

Nomination Form

Section Representative to the Board of Directors

Term 2018-2021

Please limit this Nomination Information to 4 pages

- 1) Provide your candidate's name, affiliation and full contact information, including email address and phone:

Andrew Cates
5910 Clementine Lane
Austin, TX 78744
andcates@gmail.com
512-426-4593

- 2) I am nominating this person as a SMALL/LARGE (circle or underline) Section Representative to the Board of Directors. (There are currently two open positions: one Large Section Representative and one Small Section Representative).

- 3) This candidate is a member of the following section: Legislative & Campaign Law

- 4) Briefly describe your candidate's personal background, character and contributions to their community.

Cates is a 10 year attorney who has been involved in young professional development in Austin throughout his time here. Andrew has served on numerous nonprofit boards in Austin, including the Austin Young Chamber of Commerce, the Austin Young Chamber Foundation and the Austin Young Lawyers Association. Most recently he joined the board of directors of Skillpoint Alliance, which prepares Central Texas residents for skilled trade careers through innovative approaches to learning and strategic partnerships in the community. He has been nominated four times for YMBL/YWA's Austin Under 40 awards, including once as a finalist in the Government Affairs category.

- 5) Describe your candidate's professional achievements and commitment to the legal profession.

Andrew Cates serves as General Counsel and Director of Government Affairs for the Texas Nurses Association. The Texas Nurses Association is the largest and oldest association of professional nurses in Texas, and the only nursing association which represents all nurses in all practices around the state. Cates directs all legal affairs, policy development and political engagement for the association, as well as all lobby and PAC activity at the Texas Capitol. Prior to joining TNA, Andrew served as legislative attorney for the Texas Association of REALTORS® as well as lead attorney for the Texas Association of REALTORS® Political Action Committee, the largest PAC in Texas. After joining the REALTORS® in 2012, he quickly become an expert in campaign finance and ethics law and recently published Texas Ethics Laws Annotated, the first and only complete legal annotation of campaign finance and lobby laws in Texas (available for sale at www.texasethicslaws.com).

In the years leading up to this practice, Andrew spent three years at the Texas Capitol working for various state representatives and clerking the House Committee on Criminal Jurisprudence, lobbied for solar energy and healthcare clients, and worked in various areas of the law including mergers & acquisitions, healthcare, criminal prosecution, and criminal defense.

- 6) Describe your nominee's participation in State Bar projects, including contributions to your Section.

Cates has served on the council for the Legislative & Campaign Law section of the State Bar (currently the fastest growing section of the Bar) since its inception, and currently serves as section chair. In this capacity, Cates is now working with the Texas Board of Legal Specialization to develop and implement the first ever legal specialization in Legislative & Campaign Law in the United States.

7) Provide your full contact information including email address and phone.

Self nominated

8) Please verify that you have discussed the duties and purpose of this position with your candidate and have verified they are willing to serve in this capacity, if elected. Yes.
