

Are you curious about pro bono but not sure where to get started?

Does your firm want a flexible pro bono opportunity that lawyers can do on their own or as a group?

Curious about hosting an online legal clinic from the comfort of your office?

Looking for a free hour of ethics CLE that comes with lunch?

If any of these describe you, please join us to learn more about the newest statewide pro bono program, TexasLegalAnswers.org.

This online legal advice clinic for low-income Texans fits into any lawyer's practice and lifestyle. With the mobile-friendly platform, your firm can host virtual legal clinics; create rewarding partnerships with clients or law schools; and encourage team building amongst colleagues.
