

Patrick F. McCann, Esq.

Patrick F. McCann is a former Navy officer with service in Bosnia, Europe, Central Command, and Southern Command. He is a past President of both the Harris County Criminal Lawyers Association and the Fort Bend County Criminal Defense Attorneys Association. He has been the legislative liaison for both bar organizations. A graduate of Boston College, he moved to Texas after his first tour with the Navy and graduated from the University of Houston Law Center in 1994. He has been a founding part of the Veterans Treatment Court in Harris County and in Fort Bend County, Texas, been the Chair of the Fort Bend Defenders Advisory Board, and served as a member of the Governor's Specialty Courts Advisory Council. His practice is dedicated to complex criminal and criminal appellate work, including state and federal post-conviction work. He has extensive experience in death penalty work, having handled over fifty cases at trial, on appeal, and during habeas. Mr. McCann has been practicing in criminal law since 1995 after earning his JD from the University of Houston.