

Robert Tobey, Esq.

Robert is a partner at Johnston Tobey Baruch PC in Dallas, TX. Robert began his undergraduate work at Southern Methodist University and graduated as a finance major (B.S. in Economics) from the Wharton School of Business at the University of Pennsylvania. He is a graduate of the University of Texas School of Law and is Board Certified in Consumer and Commercial Law by the Texas Board of Legal Specialization.

For over a decade, Robert has been involved with a number of legal industry organizations. He is a past President of the Dallas Bar Association (2020) and served as Co-Chair of the Equal Access to Justice Campaign (2014-15), Chair of the Trials Skills Section (2015), the CLE Committee (2015), the Judiciary Committee (2014), the Transition to Law Committee (2013), the Bench Bar Committee (2012), the Tort and Insurance Practice Section (2011) and the Business Litigation Section (2010). He also serves on the SBOT Board of Directors. He frequently speaks on ethics and malpractice issues.