

Enrique Marquez Bio

Marquez served as the first Chief Program and Services Officer for Texas HHS where he led a staff of 35,000 and oversaw the state's human service programs including Medicaid/CHIP, mental and behavioral health services, and the operation of state hospitals and state supported living centers. Marquez previously served as an adviser to the Texas Lt. Governor and Speaker of the House, and led communications for Speaker Phelan during the 87th Legislative Session.