

Famose Garner owns a law firm based in Houston, Texas and he is admitted to practice in all state and federal courts in Texas as well as military courts martial. He also has participated in client matters in Washington, D.C. and Virginia. He proudly serves as a judge advocate in the United States Army Reserve. Famose served as a law clerk to the Honorable Jeff Bohm, Chief United States Bankruptcy Judge.

Famose's practice focuses on a variety of bankruptcy and litigation. He has handled consumer matters under Chapters 7, 11, and 13 of the Bankruptcy Code and business matters under Chapters 7 and 11 of the Bankruptcy Code. His litigation experience includes business, real estate, and consumer protection. He also counsels clients in forming and acquiring businesses.

Famose graduated from the University of Houston Law Center, where he obtained the Insignis Officio Dedicato UHLC Distinguished Service Award. He served as a Notes & Comments Editor for the Houston Law Review. Before law school, Famose developed his business acumen as a financial risk manager and analyst with petrochemical companies. He also worked as an operations engineer for multiple international chemical companies. Famose earned a Masters of Business Administration with a Finance concentration from the University of Houston and an undergraduate degree in Chemical Engineering from Prairie View A&M University.