Bob Goss Bio

Prior to law school, Mr. Goss was an active-duty United States Air Force (USAF) Officer and Pilot for almost 21 years. In his last USAF assignment, Bob worked for five years for the Headquarters of the United States Air Force Doctrine Center, where he supervised writing of the USAF leadership and command doctrine and led other high-level programs. Mr. Goss was selected by the USAF as being in the top 15% of all USAF officers for his outstanding professionalism, achievements, and leadership. He served for three years at the premiere Air Command and Staff College culminating as an operations officer. Bob's other USAF employment history includes assignments as senior instructor aircraft commander, combat planner, combat mission director, and chief of numerous divisions and flights at the squadron, Group, Wing, and Headquarters United States Air Force level.

Mr. Goss is a graduate of Texas A&M University, with a Bachelor of Science degree and Master of Science degrees in aerospace engineering. Bob received his law degree (J.D.) from the Cumberland School of Law of Samford University, AL and graduated from the University of Houston Law Center with two Master of Law degrees (LL.M.).

Mr. Goss is a member of several professional associations, including:

The American Bar Association (ABA)
American Health Law Lawyers Association (AHLA)
American Intellectual Property Law Association (AIPLA)
Federal Bar Association (FBA).

Bob was the 2013-2014 Chair of the State Bar of Texas Military and Veterans Law Section. Mr. Goss also holds numerous military decorations and professional licenses.
