BACKGROUND

The State Bar of Texas, an administrative agency of the state's judicial branch, is charged with many responsibilities, including providing educational programs for the legal profession and the public, administering the Minimum Continuing Legal Education program for attorneys, and managing the grievance process. A public corporation whose funding sources include lawyers' dues and continuing legal education program fees, the State Bar of Texas receives no appropriations from the State's General Revenue Fund. The State Bar is subject to sunset review by the Legislature and successfully underwent that process for the fourth time in 2017.

The State Bar of Texas had its beginning in 1882 when 300 lawyers and judges gathered in Galveston to form the Texas Bar Association. Desiring to establish a better vehicle through which attorneys would maintain the highest ethical standards, a bar committee began in 1927 to draft a bill that would unify the bar through legislation allowing further controls over standards of legal practice. The State Bar Act, which was adopted by the Legislature in 1939, mandated that all attorneys licensed to practice law in Texas be members of the State Bar.

ORGANIZATION

The State Bar of Texas is governed by a board of directors with 46 voting members who volunteer their time and expertise without compensation. The voting members include: three officers elected statewide by State Bar members (president, president-elect, and immediate past president); 30 attorneys elected from 17 geographical districts; six public (non-attorney) members appointed by the Supreme Court; four at-large directors appointed by the State Bar president; and three officers elected statewide by Texas Young Lawyers Association members (president, president-elect, and immediate past president). The State Bar includes committees, boards, sections, and divisions that are run by more than 4,500 volunteers, both lawyers and non-lawyers. Their responsibilities include general oversight of the bar, providing assistance to local bar associations, developing continuing legal education programs for attorneys, conducting educational activities for the public, and administering the grievance system. The staff at the bar's headquarters in Austin and in regional grievance offices in Dallas, Houston, and San Antonio support the work of the volunteers.

TEXAS LAW CENTER

Located in the Capitol Complex at 15th and Colorado streets in Austin, the Texas Law Center is the State Bar's headquarters. It is near the Supreme Court Building and State Capitol. The Law Center also houses the Governor Bill and Vara Daniel Center for Legal History, which features changing displays of legal history.

PUBLIC SERVICE RESOURCES

The State Bar of Texas Public Affairs Department manages a library of free legal resources produced by the Texas Young Lawyers Association and the State Bar. The resources are provided as a public service and designed to educate the public on the legal profession and Texas law. They are neither intended as legal advice, nor are they a substitute for a lawyer. You should consult an attorney for answers to specific legal questions.

The catalog of titles includes publications targeted to attorneys. Combined, it constitutes more than 130 pamphlets, videos, and web-based projects on topics ranging from when to obtain a will, pursuing an uncontested divorce, enumerating tenants' rights, and understanding special education laws in Texas, among others.

Free legal resources for the public can be found at texasbar.com/resources. Resources aimed at attorneys are found at tyla.org/resources.

The titles are requested by and distributed free of charge to individuals, law firms, courts, and law-related organizations throughout the state.

TEXAS YOUNG LAWYERS ASSOCIATION MAP OF DISTRICTS

All Texas lawyers licensed twelve years or less at the beginning of each fiscal year (June 1), have automatic membership in the Texas Young Lawyers Association (TYLA). TYLA has an active Board of Directors and committees whose activities include preparing handbooks and pamphlets; sponsoring the National Trial Competition, the State Moot Court Competition, and seminars and programs designed to assist young lawyers in their practice; and educating Texas school children about our legal system, dropout prevention, and literacy awareness. Please refer to Article V, Section 5, of the Texas Young Lawyers Association Bylaws to determine, more specifically, which counties comprise the TYLA districts identified below.

TYLA
COMMITTEES

TEXAS YOUNG LAWYERS ASSOCIATION COMMITTEES

AS OF JULY 1, 2023

TYLA committees conduct much of the work of the Texas Young Lawyers Association (TYLA). Committees of the TYLA are divided into two categories: service and standing. Standing committee members are appointed for one year. Service committee members are recruited annually. Young lawyers across Texas have donated their time and effort in furtherance of TYLA programs through their volunteer work on committees.

If you are interested in joining a TYLA committee, please visit our website at www.tyla.org, or call the TYLA office at (800) 204-2222.

District Representatives serve staggered two-year terms and are elected by the local bar organizations in Texas that are affiliated with the ABA YLD in the appropriate region. Nominations are open to any eligible attorney in Texas meeting the requirements set out in the ABA YLD bylaws.

GRIEVANCE

STATE BAR OF TEXAS ATTORNEY GRIEVANCE PROCESS AND DISCIPLINE/DISABILITY SYSTEM

COMPLAINTS AGAINST ATTORNEYS (800) 932-1900

The State Bar Chief Disciplinary Counsel works with the local grievance committees and the Texas Commission for Lawyer Discipline to administer the attorney discipline system. A written grievance accusing an attorney of professional misconduct is initially reviewed by the Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel. Starting on September 1, 2023, if the grievance is filed by a person with a cognizable individual interest in, or connection with, the legal matter or facts alleged in the grievance and it is determined that the grievance alleges professional misconduct, as defined by the Texas Disciplinary Rules of Professional Conduct, the grievance is classified as a complaint and an investigation is initiated.

Each State Bar district has one or more grievance committees. The members of each committee are nominated by the local State Bar Board of Directors members. Approximately 380 volunteer attorneys and public members serve on the 17 grievance committees across the state.

Additional information about the attorney grievance and discipline system is available from the Chief Disciplinary Counsel headquarters office and regional offices listed below or by visiting the CDC website at texasbar.com/cdc. The bar's Grievance Information Helpline (800-932-1900) can assist in determining whether to report the conduct of a lawyer or whether other resources might be beneficial.

LAWYER REFERRAL SERVICES (FULL FEE AND REDUCED FEE)

Lawyer referral services enroll licensed attorneys who pay the necessary registration fee and meet basic guidelines. Callers referred to a participating attorney by a lawyer referral service receive up to a half-hour consultation for no more than $20. After the initial consultation, should the caller decide to authorize the lawyer to take action on their legal issue, the caller and lawyer may negotiate fees. These fees may be on a full or reduced fee basis and would be discussed with the attorney.

Below is a list of the certified lawyer referral services in Texas. The State Bar of Texas operates the lawyer referral service for the areas of the state not covered by a local lawyer referral service.
