

Sean Hamada is a founding principal and co-founder of Hamada Smith, PLLC and practices in the Firm's litigation section. Sean has more than 30 years of experience representing companies and individuals in Texas and California on a variety of commercial and business litigation matters, employment disputes related to restrictive covenants and trade secrets, business transactions, arbitrations, and trials.

Sean is an active member of the Dallas Bar Association and Dallas Asian American Bar Association. Sean is a Life Patron Fellow of the Dallas Bar Foundation and served on its Board of Directors from 2015 to 2022. He was a Barrister in the Judge Patrick E. Higginbotham Inn of Court from 2012 to 2015. Sean was appointed to the Associate Judge Merit Selection Panel in Dallas County and has been appointed to the Professionalism Committee of the State Bar of Texas.

Since 2012, Sean has been selected for inclusion in Texas Super Lawyers® for business litigation. Sean has also been recognized in D Magazine's Best Lawyers in Dallas for business litigation. In 2010, he was the recipient of the Dallas Bar Association's Outstanding Minority Attorney Award. Sean received his undergraduate degree from UC Berkeley and his law degree from SMU.