

Brian Middleton Biography

Brian Middleton proudly represents Fort Bend County as District Attorney and was first elected to the office in 2018. Prior to holding public office, Brian served as both a judge and a prosecutor in several jurisdictions in Fort Bend County then went on to establish the Middleton Law Firm practicing in the areas of criminal law, civil litigation, bankruptcy, and appeals.

Brian began his career as a prosecutor under his predecessor John Healey. The primary duty of the Fort Bend County District Attorney is not to convict, but to see that justice is served. The District Attorney's Office works to ensure public safety with integrity, accountability, and fairness in the relentless pursuit of justice through best practices in evidence-based prosecutions. In recognition of these efforts, Brian was named "Prosecutor of the Year" by the State Bar of Texas in 2022.
