

Richard D. Rosen Biographical Sketch

Long-Version:

Former Glenn D. West Endowed Research Professor of Law Richard D. Rosen joined the Texas Tech University School of Law after completing a 26-year career as an Army judge advocate. Before retiring from the military, Professor Rosen was Commandant of the Judge Advocate General's School, U.S. Army in Charlottesville, VA. Other military positions held by Professor Rosen include Staff Judge Advocate of the III Armored Corps and Fort Hood, Fort Hood, TX; Chief of Personnel, Plans and Training, The Pentagon, Washington, DC; Special Counsel to the Assistant Attorney General for the Civil Division, Department of Justice, Washington, DC; Deputy Legal Counsel to the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, The Pentagon, Washington, DC; and Staff Judge Advocate of the 1st Cavalry Division, Fort Hood, TX. Professor Rosen retired from the full-time faculty in July 2023.

Professor Rosen received his B.A. degree from The Ohio State University in 1970, his J.D. degree from the University of Miami School of Law in 1973, and his LL.M. degree from the University of Virginia School of Law in 1987. Professor Rosen is also a graduate of the Army Judge Advocate Basic and Graduate courses, the Army's Command & General Staff College, and the Army War College, having completed a War College Fellowship with the Department of Justice.

Short-Version:

Professor Richard D. Rosen is the former Glenn D. West Endowed Professor of Law at the Texas Tech School of Law. He retired from the full-time faculty in 2023. Before coming to Texas Tech, Professor Rosen served as an Army judge advocate for 26 years, retiring as a colonel in 2003.