

Liz is a co-founding member of Ramon Worthington Nicolas & Cantu, PLLC, with offices in Hidalgo and Travis Counties. She has been practicing law since 1999, after graduating from St. Mary's University School of Law, and has handled the litigation of civil suits, including cases involving personal and catastrophic injury, commercial litigation and insurance defense.

She is currently a State Bar of Texas At Large Director, a member of the Board of Editors for the Texas Bar Journal and The Advocate, Immediate Past Chair of the State Bar of Texas Women in the Law Section, council member of the Computer & Technology Section, a Texas Bar Foundation fellow, frequently speaks on Cyber issues, Insurance Law and is co-chairing this year's Annual Advanced Civil Trial CLE for Texas Bar CLE.