

Gerald Healy Bio

Mr. Gerald (Gerry) Healy, commissioned as a Judge Advocate into the United States Marine Corps in 2004. Captain Healy quickly earned a reputation as a fierce and tireless advocate for his clients. After rising to the position of Senior Defense Counsel in the Marine Corps, Captain Healy secured a notable number of acquittals in a jurisdiction boasting a 95% conviction rate. Captain Healy represented dozens of military clients in cases ranging from drug use and sexual assault to fraud and espionage over nearly a decade of experience before his honorable discharge from the Marines in 2012. He was awarded the Navy Commendation Medal for his tireless and successful efforts as a military defense attorney.

Since leaving active duty, Mr. Healy has gone on to represent hundreds of servicemembers in all military branches across the country and the world who faced Federal or Military criminal charges. In recent years, Mr. Healy has represented hundreds of military servicemembers and veterans who have been harmed by governmental actions, such as Camp Lejeune Justice Act, 3M Earplugs, and Vaccine Mandates. In April of 2022, Mr. Healy was the first attorney across the DoD to successfully defend a Marine Sergeant facing involuntary separation due to refusing to take the COVID-19 vaccine. Currently, Mr. Healy is representing one of the twenty-five Track 1 bellwether cases in the Camp Lejeune Toxic Water litigation that will go to trial later this year in the Eastern District Court of North Carolina.

Mr. Healy is a member of the Connecticut Bar Association.
