

Linda K. Webster Bio

Lead Soldiers' Medical Evaluation Board (MEB) Counsel, Fort Cavazos, Texas

Linda Webster currently works at Fort Cavazos assisting Soldiers in the Army's Disability Evaluation System for medical processing because of Soldiers' illnesses or injuries. She has worked as a civilian Government counsel with Soldiers in the Disability Evaluation System for about 10 ½ years. Linda also has worked as a civilian Government labor counselor at the hospital at Fort Cavazos and as a private practitioner in the estate planning field.

She first started as an attorney through service on active duty as an Army Judge Advocate General's Corps Officer. She had a variety of assignments during her twenty-year career to include Senior Defense Counsel, Deputy Chief of the Army Legal Assistance Policy Division, Military Judge, Regional Defense Counsel, and Hospital Judge Advocate.

Linda is a proud graduate of both the University of Oklahoma for her undergraduate degree and the University of Texas School of Law for her JD.
