

Insurance Law Update

Rachel E. Wall

Nistico, Crouch & Kessler

Rachel Wall is with Nistico, Crouch & Kessler, P.C., where she manages the firm's DFW area office. Her practice focuses primarily on first-party insurance defense litigation representing insurers in property disputes involving complex coverage matters, fire claims, claims referred to SIU, and storm and water damage claims. She also handles automobile litigation in both the first and third-party contexts as well as life insurance matters. Ms. Wall has served as first chair counsel at trial in both state and federal court throughout the North Texas area and in the Southern District of Texas. She also handles pre-litigation claims matters for different insurers.

Ms. Wall is a 2007 graduate of the University of Houston Law Center, and she has practiced Nistico, Crouch & Kessler for more than 18 years. She began her legal career working with Kathleen Crouch who was her mentor until she retired in 2019.