Krisi Kastl is a highly accomplished trial attorney and the founder of Kastl Law, P.C., a plaintiff's personal injury firm she established in 2006. As the firm proudly celebrates its 20th anniversary, it continues to build on a legacy of excellence and unwavering dedication to its clients. Her practice focuses on complex and high-stakes cases, including 18-wheeler truck crashes, traumatic brain injuries, premises liability, and catastrophic explosions. Under her leadership, the firm is committed to delivering exceptional results while relentlessly pursuing justice.

Krisi Kastl is also a strong advocate for women, bringing both strength and compassion to her work while championing the rights of those she represents.

Krisi is especially recognized for her extensive courtroom experience, having taken more than 100 cases to jury verdict—an achievement that sets her apart in the field of personal injury law. Her proven trial skills and commitment to her clients have earned her a strong reputation as a formidable advocate.
