

Attorney Kandace D. Walter is a native Texan and a proud graduate of The University of Texas School of Law (J.D., 2004) and Florida A & M University (B.S. Chemistry, 2001). She is licensed to practice law in Texas and is also registered to practice before the United States Patent and Trademark Office. She has provided valuable legal guidance to her business and intellectual property clients via Walter Legal PLLC since 2016. Prior to opening her own law firm, she was an Assistant District Attorney for the Dallas County District Attorney's Office as well as an Assistant City Attorney and Community Prosecutor for the Dallas City Attorney's Office. She also worked for a medium sized firm focusing on school law and an intellectual property boutique focusing on business and IP transaction and litigation for a wide range of clients. She has been Director of the Small Business & Trademark Clinic at Southern Methodist University School of Law since 2020 and became an Associate Clinical Professor of Law in 2023. She was elected as the 2023 Secretary/Treasurer and 2024-25 Director of the Dallas Bar Association. She has served on the boards of J.L. Turner Legal Association and its Foundation and is the 2025 JLTLA President. She is a founding member of The NEW Roundtable, Inc. and current board member. She also participated in the Dallas Bar Association 2019 WE LEAD Program and the Dallas Association of Young Lawyers 2017 Leadership Class, where she has served as a Facilitator since 2024. She was also the 2024-25 President of the Lynn Inn of Court (the Dallas Intellectual Property Inn of Court). She absolutely loves mentoring, karaoke and her precious daughter, Cairo.
