

Thelma Clardy

Ms. Clardy concentrates in the field of family probate and civil law and has over fifteen years of experience. She is a long-time community and professional volunteer. Ms. Clardy's past and present services includes serving as a board member of the Dallas Bar Association's Family Law Section, was chair of the State Bar's General Practice, Solo and Small Firm Section, and president of the Best Southwest Bar Association and president of the Concerned DeSoto Citizens (CDC) organization. She is also a co-founder of the Dallas Association of Black Women's Attorneys (DABWA, which subsequently merged with the J.L.Turner Legal Association). From 2002-2008, she served as a member of the DeSoto, Texas City Council, with her last year serving as Mayor Pro Tem of that council.